

Those Who Have Betrayed Sacred Trusts Will Be UNMASKED Before The World.

Ellen White Full Quote — “All Will Be Unmasked”

From Testimonies for the Church, Volume 5, page 81 (5T 81.1):

“The time is not far distant when the test will come to every soul.

The mark of the beast will be urged upon us.

Those who have step by step yielded to worldly demands and conformed to worldly customs will not find it a hard matter to yield to the powers that be, rather than subject themselves to derision, insult, threatened imprisonment, and death.

The contest is between the commandments of God and the commandments of men.

In this time the gold will be separated from the dross in the church.

True godliness will be clearly distinguished from the appearance and tinsel of it.

Many a star that we have admired for its brilliancy will then go out in darkness.

Chaff like a cloud will be borne away on the wind, even from places where we see only floors of rich wheat.

All who assume the ornaments of the sanctuary, but are not clothed with Christ's righteousness, will appear in the shame of their own nakedness.

When trees without fruit are cut down as cumberers of the ground, when multitudes of false brethren are distinguished from the true, then the hidden ones will be revealed to view, and ‘thus saith the Lord’ will be the test of every man's character.

They will be as men wondered at.

Then will the church of Christ appear ‘fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners.’

The false watchmen are the first to fall.

There are none to pity them, and God will not be entreated to spare them.

Those who have betrayed sacred trusts will be UNMASKED before the world.”

“The image of the beast will be formed before probation closes, for it is to be the GREAT TEST for the people of God, by which their eternal destiny WILL BE decided.” — Selected Messages, Book 2, p. 81

IDENTITY THEFT EXPOSED: The Great Apostasy of 1904

In 1841–1850, a virgin band of Bible-believing pioneers renounced every vestige of Rome. They cast off Sunday-keeping, natural immortality, sprinkling, and the Trinity—uniting under the banner of the Third Angel’s Message. But in a great betrayal of that sacred calling, a new corporation was formed on April 15, 1904 in the Roman territory of the District of Columbia, marrying the Adventist name to the state, and trademarking it like a commercial brand.

“The third angel’s message was, and still is, a WARNING to the saints to ‘hold fast,’ and not go back, and ‘receive’ THE MARKS which the virgin band got rid of, during the second angel’s cry.”
— James White, A Word to the Little Flock, April 21, 1847, p. 11

“The greatest fault we can find in the Reformation is, the Reformers stopped reforming. Had they gone on, and onward, till they had left the last vestige of Papacy behind, such as natural immortality,

Why is the SDA Church disfellowshipping members for NOT believing in the Trinity, which they admit is NOT BIBLICAL??

“While no single scriptural passage states formally the doctrine of the Trinity, it is assumed as a fact by Bible writers and mentioned several times. Only by faith can we accept the existence of the Trinity.”

Adventist Review, Vol. 158, No. 31, Special Edition July 30, 1981, p. 4.

501(c)3 GENERAL CONFERENCE

EARLY SDA PROTESTANT PIONEERS

sprinkling, the trinity, and Sunday-keeping, the church would now be free from her unscriptural errors.”
— James White, Review & Herald, Vol. 7, No. 19, February 7, 1856, pp. 148–149

Yet the General Conference Corporation of Seventh-day Adventists had the audacity to trademark the name “Seventh-day Adventist” in 1981, falsely claiming the Protestant heritage of the pioneers they rejected. This 501(c)(3) imposter not only betrayed the truth—it now sues and disfellowships anyone who still believes it. Just like Rome burned the martyrs, the GC-SDA now burns reputations and excommunicates anyone who holds to the original faith of the Philadelphian wise virgins, the early Pioneer Adventists in 1841-1850.

The “new organization” warned about in 1SM p. 204 has fulfilled every prophetic mark of Babylon. It is a harlot daughter of Rome, disguised in Protestant garb, collecting tithes in Federal Reserve slave-script and investing sacred funds into companies that desecrate the Sabbath (See pages 13-15 below). This is not reform—it is rebellion.

Warning to Every Soul in Laodicea

You have been tricked. The real Seventh-day Adventist Church was NEVER a corporate franchise. It was a spiritual movement of flesh and blood (humans not fictitious entity organizational structures) holy reformers preparing the way for Christ. Now that name "Seventh-day Adventist" has been stolen, corporatized, trademarked, and used as bait to lead souls into an IRS-endorsed Catholic trap.

It's time to divorce the Catholic 501(c)3 SDA CORPORATION that lies on IRS tax forms claiming to be Protestant, to deceive if possible the very elect, a fictitious entity "new organization" (1SM204) structure that has no mind of its own, a make believe fiction structure "church" business and return to the original message of the 144,000 as given in 1841-1850 by the early Seventh-day Adventist pioneers.

IRS Filing (1950): False Protestant Claim — This is the damning legal proof that the 501(c)3 General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists fraudulently declared themselves "Protestant" on official IRS filings, while their leaders openly confessed to being a "Catholic organization" (Adventist Review, March 5, 1981). This constitutes criminal simulation and spiritual identity theft—a counterfeit denomination usurping the name "Seventh day Adventist" from the Protestant SDA pioneers of 1841-1850.

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Feb. 10, 2014, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(03) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in JANUARY 1950.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file. We will publish a list of organizations whose tax-exempt status was revoked under section 6033(j) of the Code on our website beginning in early 2011.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

What is a EIN Number?

The Employer Identification Number (EIN), also known as the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) or the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), is a unique nine-digit number assigned by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) (format: XX-XXXXXXX) to business entities operating in the United States for the purposes of identification and employment tax reporting.

What are tax-exempt Organizations?

Companies or non-profit which are not liable to pay taxes to IRS are known as tax-exempt organizations.

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) (format: XX-XXXXXXX) to business entities operating in the United States for the purposes of identification and employment tax reporting. Other commonly used terms for EIN are Taxpayer Id, IRS Number, Tax Id, Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) etc.

A business needs an EIN in order to pay employees and to file business tax returns. To be considered a Partnership, LLC, Corporation, S Corporation, Non-profit, etc. a business must obtain an EIN. Also, financial institutions such as banks, credit unions, and brokerage houses will not open an account for a corporation without an EIN. Since all corporations - including ones with no income - must file at least a federal income tax return, a corporation operating or incorporated in the United States generally must obtain an EIN anyway either before or after being issued its charter.

What is eintaxid.com?: Our website eintaxid.com is a web resource to find the ein number for various business entities - 4M+ EIN numbers can be searched free of cost. We have a database of over 12 million entities which can be searched to find the ein number of business entities. We harvest our data from various publically available data sources such as edgar database (SEC), form 5500 dataset (IRS, DOL), form 990 datasets (tax-exempt organizations, IRS) etc.

“...a reformation must go through the churches. Reforms must be made, for spiritual weakness and blindness were upon the people who had been blessed with great light and precious opportunities and privileges. As reformers they had come out of the denominational churches, but they now act a part similar to that which the churches acted. We hoped there would not be the necessity for another coming out.” (Ellen White 1888 Mat., pp. 356,357.)

THE PRESENT TRUTH.

PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY—BY JAMES WHITE.

Vol. I.

MIDDLETOWN, CONN, JULY, 1849.

No. 1.

"The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant."—Ps. xlv. 14.

"WHEREFORE, I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the PRESENT TRUTH." 2 Pet. i: 12.

It is through the truth that souls are sanctified, and made ready to enter the everlasting kingdom. Obedience to the truth will kill us to this world, that we may be made alive, by faith in Jesus. "Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth;" John xvii: 17. This was the prayer of Jesus. "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth," 3 John iv.

Error, darkness and fetters the mind, but the truth brings with it freedom, and gives light and life. True charity, or LOVE, "rejoiceth in the truth;" Cor. xiii: 6. "Thy law is the truth." Ps. cxix: 142.

David describing the day of slaughter, when the pestilence shall walk in darkness, "The sword shall waste at noon-day, so that the strong shall fall at thy side and ten shall be slain by thy right hand," says—

"Cover thee with his feathers, and thou shalt be as wings; thou shalt trust; his shield shall be thy SHIELD and his strength shall be thy strength." Ps. xci: 4.

War, famine and pestilence are already in the field of slaughter; and the time, the only time to seek for the truth of the living God.

At this time there was present truth, applicable to that present time. We have never had a present truth.

The truth now, is that which shows the right position for us to witness the time of trouble, which was. Present truth must be established to those who are established.

This was needful in the apostle's time; it certainly is no less important now, as we are living just before the close of time.

For months I have felt burdened with the duty of writing, and publishing the present truth for the scattered flock; but the way has not been opened for me to commence the work until now. I tremble at the word of the Lord, and the importance of this time. What is done to spread the truth must be done quickly. The four Angels are holding the angry nations in check but a few days, until the saints are sealed; then the nations will rush, like the rushing of many waters. Then it will be too late to spread before precious souls, the present saving, living truths of the Holy Bible. My spirit is drawn out after the scattered remnant. May God help them to receive the truth, and be established in it. May they haste to take shelter beneath the "covering of the Almighty God," is my prayer.

The Weekly Sabbath Instituted at Creation, and not at Sinai.

"And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made." Gen ii: 2, 3.

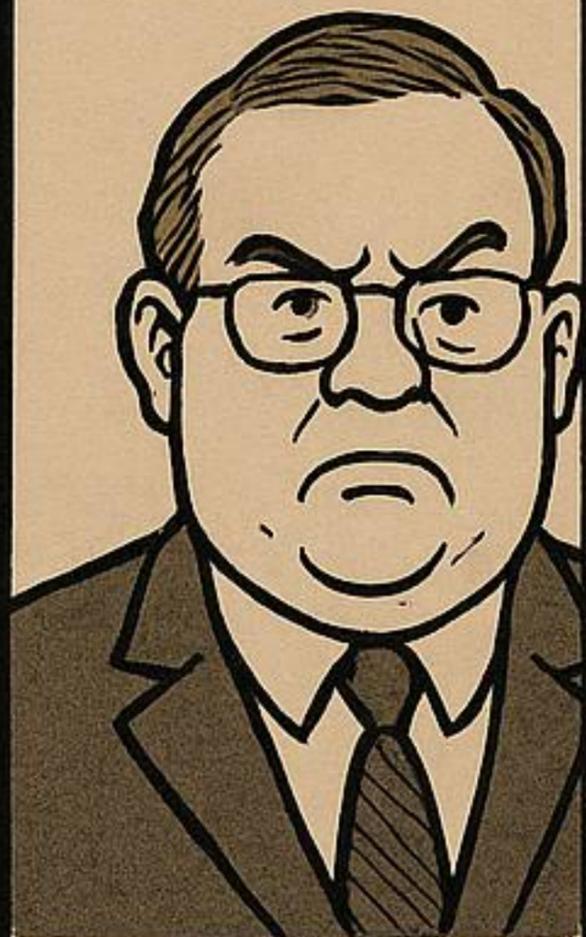

Here God instituted the weekly rest or Sabbath. It was the seventh day. He BLESSED and SANCTIFIED that day of the week, and no other; therefore the seventh day, and no other day of the week is holy, sanctified time.

God has given the reason why he blessed and sanctified the seventh day. "Because that in it he had rested from all his work which God had created and made." He rested, and set the example for man. He blessed and set apart the seventh day for man to rest from his labor, and follow the example of his Creator. The Lord of the Sabbath said, Mark ii: 27, "The Sabbath was made for man." Not for the Jew only, but for MAN, in its broadest sense; meaning all mankind. The word man in this text, means the same as it does in the following texts. "Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble." Job xiv: 1. "Man lieth down and riseth not, till the heavens be no more." Job xiv: 12.

No one will say that man here means

Who Give the Third Angels Sealing Message

The Angel Said...

"I saw that they were in terrible conflict as to whether to take their stand for or against the light that God has permitted me to bear to the world. It seemed to me like a life and-death question. I cannot describe it, but the conflict was a terrible one. The seductive presentations [trinity doctrine] framed by satanic agencies were presented by subtle reasoning, and their minds had well-nigh become overwhelmed when a heavenly messenger let light shine forth. There came to them the thought, "Review the past experience of the people of God; review the history of the work from the first, as if you were beholding it in a mirror. Has this work been what it has been represented to you to be? Then another and still another scene was presented before them by the heavenly messenger, until they saw truth bearing the signature of the heavenly in the past, then present, and still more decidedly in the future. The words were spoken, "Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, that leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Broad is the road and wide is the gate that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat" —Manuscript Releases, vol. 13 [Nos. 1000-1080], p. 369.1 (Ellen G. White).

THE TEN KINGDOMS.

These are the ten horns or kingdoms, into which Rome was first divided, they are now mingled with the seed of men and do not cleave one to another. Daniel 2:43.

44th verse. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. 45th verse. For as much as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it break in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the Great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: And the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof is sure.

1843. GOD'S EVERLASTING KINGDOM

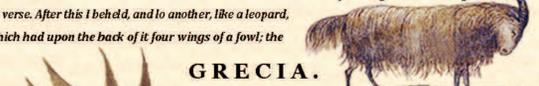

B A B Y L O N .

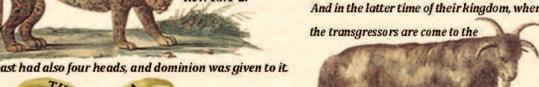

3rd verse. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

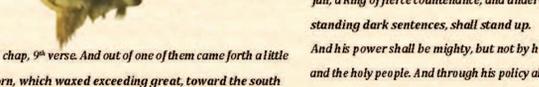

5th verse. And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

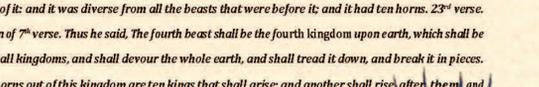

6th verse. After this I beheld, and to another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the 7th verse. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it; and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. 23rd verse. Interpretation of 7th verse. Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

8th chap, 20th Daniel. The ram which thou sawest, having two horns, are the kings of Media and Persia.

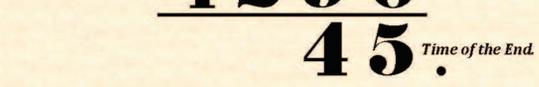

21st verse. And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn between his eyes is the first king. Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the Prince of Princes. Syria became a Province of Rome 65 yrs. before Christ. see Whepley's Compend, page 120. Of course Pagan Rome only could stand up against the Prince of Princes. Pagan Rome commences the little horn of Daniel 8:9, terminating with the papacy at the end of 2300 days.

7th chap, 8th verse. MISSION STATEMENT of the Seventh-day Adventist Church

(As amended by the Annual Council of the General Conference Executive Committee in Silver Spring, Maryland, United States of America, on October 13, 2009.)

Our Mission—The mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church is to make disciples of all people, communicating the everlasting gospel in the context of the three angels' messages of Revelation 14:6-12, leading them to accept Jesus as personal Savior and unite with His remnant Church, disciplining them to serve Him as Lord, and preparing them for His soon return.

Our Method—We pursue this mission under the guidance and through the empowerment of the Holy Spirit through:

1. Preaching—Accepting Christ's commission (Matt 28:18-20), we proclaim to all the world in these last days the everlasting gospel of God's love, most fully revealed in His Son's life, ministry, atoning death, resurrection, and high priestly ministry. Recognizing the Bible to be God's infallible revelation of His will, we present its full message, including the second advent of Christ and the continuing authority of His Ten Commandment law with its reminder of the seventh-day Sabbath.

2. Teaching—Acknowledging that development of mind and character is essential to God's redemptive plan, we promote the growth of a mature understanding of and relationship to God, His Word, and the created universe.

3. Healing—Affirming the biblical principles of the well-being of the whole person, we make the preservation of health and the healing of the sick a priority and through our ministry to the poor and oppressed, cooperate with the Creator in His compassionate work of restoration.

4. Discipling—Affirming the continued spiritual growth and development of all members, we nurture the newly converted, instruct them in righteous living, train them for effective witness, and encourage their responsive obedience to God's will.

Our Vision—In harmony with the great prophecies of the Scriptures, we see as the climax of God's plan the restoration of all His creation to full harmony with His perfect will and righteousness.

f. Each local mission* shall be entitled to one delegate without regard to membership size.

g. Each division shall be entitled to additional delegates based upon its membership as a proportion of the world Church membership. The total number of delegates from all divisions under this provision shall not exceed 400. The resulting quota of division delegates under this provision shall be distributed first to the unions that are affiliated with that division, based on each union's proportion of the division membership. Any unallocated delegate entitlements under this process shall be allocated at the discretion of the division executive committee.

h. Unused quotas of regular delegates allocated to unions and unions of churches may be reallocated by the divisions.

b. The number of denominational entities eligible for inclusion in determining quotas and which are in existence as of December 31 of the second year preceding the General Conference Session.

b. The members of the Nominating Committee shall be chosen as follows:

1) Each division delegation and each delegation from a union attached to the General Conference shall act as a unit in selecting members to which it is entitled. Excluded from this process shall be any delegates at large currently employed by the General Conference or its institutions.

2) The delegates at large currently employed by the General Conference or its institutions shall act as a unit in selecting members to which they are entitled.

3) The election of the above representatives on the Nominating Committee shall be by the method of voting considered by each delegation to be most convenient and efficient, taking into consideration the size of the delegation and other circumstances.

c. Each group (named in Sec. 4. b. 1) and 2) above) shall select its representatives on the Nominating Committee to represent, as far as possible, the various geographical areas, organizational segments, and types of activity of the territory.

Giving a brief account of the Rise and Progress of

“The every-day cares and duties, which men call drudgery, are the weights and counterpoises of the clock of time, giving its pendulum a true vibration, and its hands a regular motion; and when they cease to hang upon the wheels, the pendulum no longer swings, the hands no longer move, the clock stands still.”

“Threefold the stride of Time, from first to last!
Loitering slow, the Future creepeth—
Arrow-swift, the Present sweepeth—
And motionless forever stands the Past.”

PREFACE.

The present Year Book of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination is the fourteenth of the series in which the denominational directories have been issued in this form. Beginning with the year 1883, a Year Book was issued annually until 1894. From that year until 1903, the directories of the denomination were issued in the "General Conference Bulletin."

A Year Book is considered to be a necessary feature in connection with the work of the denomination, and its pages are intended to convey accurate information regarding all the organizations, institutions, and enterprises in any way connected with the cause. The rapidity with which changes are constantly made in the force and location of workers, and in the members of boards and committees, as well as of officers, makes it absolutely impossible to present a directory that will remain strictly accurate in every respect for a great length of time. Changes occur so frequently that a daily revision would be necessary to indicate all the modifications that are made. This fact, however, should furnish a source of gratification, indicating, as it does, the rapid advancement of the work which the cause represents.

The information which the following pages contain is brought down to February 10, 1905, when the pages were closed for the press.

The closing of the matter for this book just before the end of the year 1904, makes it impossible to give statistical returns brought down to a recent date, from the fact that these returns are not received until a number of weeks later. The statistics given, therefore, are in most cases those reported for December 31, 1903, except where otherwise stated.

NOTES REGARDING THE DIRECTORY.

Those who are not familiar with the arrangement of the matter contained in these pages would do well to note the following suggestions regarding the best method of finding names and addresses. In the Table of Contents will be found the names of all Conferences, organizations, and institutions connected with the denomination. If one desires to secure the address of a laborer in a certain Conference, turn to the Table of Contents, which gives the page on which the directory of that Conference is found. By reference to the page cited, the Conference directory will be found, as well as the names of all officers and laborers connected with the organization, with the address of each given. Or if the person is a minister, turn to the Ministerial Directory, and there find his name in alphabetical order, with address given.

The customary Summary of Officers is omitted in this issue. Instead of this, the address of each officer is given in connection with the directory of the Conference, thus making the Summary unnecessary, and at the same time making the directory of each organization more complete.

An effort has also been made to include under the Conference directory all work being carried forward under its auspices. This again tends to make each Conference directory more nearly complete than any former arrangement. Particular reference is here made to the directory of treatment-rooms, church-schools, restaurants, etc. As will be seen, this comprises all the work in a conference under one head, with the exception of educational institutions, publishing houses, and sanitariums, which have special boards for their supervision, and directories of which will be found in separate lists, in later pages.

Cable addresses are given in connection with each organization reporting such information, instead of one general list of Cable Addresses as heretofore. It is strongly urged that all mission fields and institutions select the word Adventist as their code, and report this for future editions. It may be said to be a universal practise for all offices having cable addresses to use the A B C Code. The Western Union Telegraphic Code is also used by the General Conference.

NOTES.

The foregoing tables give the numerical standing and work of the denomination at the close of 1903 and for the year 1893. The time intervening in that period has shown remarkable growth in all lines of work, and gives reason for rejoicing at the progress made. A few of the leading features may be briefly referred to in this connection.

Take the item of Union Conferences. In 1893 there were no Union Conferences or union missions; the first organized was the Australasian, in 1894. At the present time there are sixteen Union Conferences and Union Missions.

In 1893 there were in all the world forty-five conferences and missions, while ten years later the combined number was 126, a gain of 180 per cent. The next item is that of churches; 2,120 was the number for 1893, while 1,151 was the number a decade previous. The gain in this instance is 84 per cent. The gain in ministers during the ten years is 129 per cent, and of licensed ministers, 70 per cent. A very important and significant gain is that of the tithe, which is 95, while the gain in offerings to mission work is 99 per cent.

From the foregoing it will be seen that the gain in the most important items has been, approximately, 100 per cent in the ten years; in other words, it is shown that the facilities and the workers have been doubled in the decade under consideration.

Note the significance of the growth in establishing missions. While ten years ago there were but eleven missions in all the world, there are now forty-eight missions in full operation, with urgent calls for the establishing of others in various countries. This of course means the scattering of laborers as pickets along the line of battle, whose places are soon to be taken by recruits and by laborers raised up in the fields, and these in turn will be followed by regularly organized conferences, with institutions as may be necessary to forward the work in these fields.

Thus it will be seen that the work is now at a strategical point in its history, and that if it can be successfully prosecuted in the large and important fields into which it has recently entered, and these various missions supported and strengthened, the cause will soon make a much more rapid growth.

A table showing the growth by decades during the past forty years, or from the year when the General Conference was organized, 1863, is herewith appended:—

our denominational history." — A. G. Daniels

HISTORICAL SUMMARY OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

GIVING A BRIEF ACCOUNT OF

The Rise and Progress of the Denomination, together with Historical Data Regarding the Organizations and Institutions
Connected Therewith.

ARRANGED IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER.

In attempting to collate matter from the records indicating the rise and progress of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, there are two obstacles which at first seem insurmountable: First, to determine what shall be selected from all the mass of periodic literature, of Conference proceedings, of editorial production, of the record of missionary effort, which have appeared during the past seventy years, and issued in various forms, in different parts of the country, and by many persons; and, second, after having begun the work of selecting the statements of the men who assisted in making the history what it is, the next and greater difficulty is to confine the selections within the limits of the space which may be used for this purpose, and still retain much of interest regarding the rise of the work in obscurity and poverty; of the hardships endured by the leaders and pioneers in this work; of its slow yet constant growth; of the battles waged regarding its concrete organization, and later the organization of its various departments; of the beautiful and harmonious doctrines that are clearly set forth in the publications issued; of the spread of the work to other lands; and of the ultimate triumph of the message, which has ever been the goal before those who have been engaged in the work of the people brought out by the third angel's message.

A person standing on the bank of a stream may fail to observe the rapidity with which the current is moving onward toward the ocean. Nevertheless its movement is irresistible, and the increase of its volume constant. So he who gives only casual attention to the progress of this cause may fail to note how rapidly and unceasingly it is moving onward toward the glorious consummation which has been the hope, the inspiration, and the comfort of all who have been connected with it.

In the following pages will be found one kind of tangible proof of the progress of this cause in the facts and figures cited; and yet the cause lives not in any figures, but in the hearts of its believers. But these figures furnish a source of gratification, indicating that the triumph of the message is near, and that the final turn in the river of time before reaching the great ocean of eternity, is soon to be brought to view.

"The Advent cause owes its very existence to the first and second angel's messages of Revelation 14."—James White, in Review and Herald, Vol. II, No. 10, p. 76.

"We hold that the great movement upon the second advent question, which commenced with the writings and public lectures of William Miller, has been, in its leading features, in fulfilment of prophecy. Consistent with this view, we also hold that in the providence of God Mr. Miller was raised up to do a specific work."—James White, in Introduction to "Life of William Miller."

FIRST ANGEL'S MESSAGE.

William Miller embraced Christianity in September, 1816, and began immediately an exhaustive study of the Scriptures.

In 1818 he reached the conclusion that the second coming of Christ would take place about the year 1843. This view was based on the vision or prophecy recorded and explained in the eighth and ninth chapters of Daniel.

After arriving at this startling conclusion, Mr. Miller spent five years more in a careful and thorough study of the whole question. This gave him unshaken confidence in the evidences and proofs upon which his conclusion was based.

1831: On the first Sunday in August, 1831, as nearly as can be determined, Mr. Miller preached his first sermon on the second coming of Christ, and the end of the world.

1832: His first written statement, announcing the coming of the Lord at the close of the 2300 years, in 1843, was a series of sixteen articles printed in the Vermont Telegraph, of Brandon, Vt., beginning May 15, 1832. His first pamphlet, giving an exposition of the prophecies and other Scriptures relating to the second advent, was printed in March, 1833. In the spring of 1836 he published at Troy, N. Y., his course of sixteen lectures in pamphlet form.

1833: September 14, Wm. Miller granted ministerial license from Baptist church.

1838: About the first of March, 1838, Josiah Litch, of Lowell, Mass., a Methodist minister and an able writer and speaker, embraced the views taught by William Miller, and began to proclaim them by voice and pen. He immediately issued a pamphlet of forty-eight pages, entitled "The Midnight Cry." In June, he published a book of 204 pages, entitled "The Probability of the Second Coming of Christ, about A. D. 1843."

1839: During the first part of December, 1839, Joshua V. Himes, of Boston, Mass., joined William Miller and Josiah Litch in the proclamation of the Advent message. On taking his stand with Mr. Miller, he declared that "doors should be opened in every city in the Union, and the warning should go to the ends of the earth."

1840: On the 20th of March, 1840, J. V. Himes began, in Boston, Mass., the publication of the Signs of the Times. "The paper thus started was published for two years as a semimonthly," and then continued as a weekly.

The first "General Conference of Second Advent Believers" was convened in the Chardon Street Chapel, in Boston, Mass., October 15, 1840, and continued two days. The proceedings, together with the lectures delivered on the occasion, were published, and widely circulated.

1841: The second "General Conference of Advent believers" was held in Lowell, Mass., June 15-17, 1841.

The third "General Conference of Christians expecting the advent of the Lord," was called to meet in Portland, Me., October 12, 1841, by "Josiah Litch, Henry Jones, D. I. Robinson, Wm. Miller, J. V. Himes, Committee."

Between that date and February 8, 1842, seven similar conferences were held in the New England States.

1842: "The Signs of the Times has not less than 50,000 readers." "More than 60,000 copies of various books and tracts have been issued from our establishment, and spread through the world in the four quarters of the globe, and the islands of the sea." "From three to four hundred ministers of the gospel are now engaged in giving the midnight cry."—Signs of the Times, March 15, 1842.

In the latter part of November, 1842, J. V. Himes began the publication, in New York City, of a daily paper, entitled The Midnight Cry; it was principally under the editorial supervision of N. Soutnard. Twenty-four numbers were published, and ten thousand copies of each number circulated.

During the summer of 1842, series of tent meetings, with immense congregations, were held in Eastern Canada, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey. "It was a movement which shook the nation."

The winter of 1842 was spent by Elders Miller, Himes, Storrs, and others in a course of lectures in New York City. "The interest continued to increase beyond all expectation."

In December, 1842, Josiah Litch and A. Hale began public services in Philadelphia, under the most encouraging circumstances.

"In a manner too rapid to record, the Advent cause went forward during that winter."

1843: Different ministers conducted meetings in the South and West, going as far as Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C., Pittsburg, Pa., and Cincinnati, Ohio. Many public laborers were brought into the faith, and began its proclamation. Papers devoted to the Advent cause were published in Cincinnati, Eastern Canada, Philadelphia, and Washington.

THE SECOND ANGEL'S MESSAGE.

"Call to Remembrance the Former Days."

"It is good to obey this injunction of the apostle, and call to remembrance the past experience in the Advent cause. Those who believe it to be the cause of God, should not reject the means that has made it a separate cause. . . . We say that the original faith is that which has made us a separate people. If we had never heard the judgment hour cry, which was based on definite time, we never should have been led to bear a testimony which, being rejected by our own brethren, made it necessary for us to separate from the churches. If the Advent people had closed their ears to the cry of the second angel (Rev. 14: 8), they would, as a general thing, have remained in the churches to this day. . . . And where would be the Advent cause, as it is called by some—who reject the very means that has made it a separate cause?—It would not be in existence. . . . And if the Advent people who are now a separate people, had not heeded the cry of the second angel, but had remained in the different churches, they would probably have no more interest in the coming of the Lord than those now have who stayed in the church. . . . We say that the Advent cause owes its very existence to the first and second angels' messages of Revelation 14. Then why talk of the Advent cause being the cause of God, and at the same time call the means that gave it birth a mistake?"—James White, in Review and Herald of Jan. 13, 1852.

"When we commenced the work of giving the 'midnight cry' with Brother Miller in 1840, he had been lecturing nine years. During that time he stood almost alone. . . . He made no attempt to convert men to a sect, or party, in religion. Hence he labored among all parties and sects, without interfering with their organizations or discipline. . . . Most of the ministers and churches that opened their doors to us, and our brethren who were proclaiming the Advent doctrine, co-operated with us until the last year. The ministry and membership who availed themselves of our labors, but had not sincerely embraced the doctrine, saw that they must either go with the doctrine, and preach and maintain it, or in the crisis which was right upon them they would have difficulty with the decided and determined believers. They therefore decided against the doctrine, and determined, some by one policy and some by another, to suppress the subject. This placed our brethren and sisters among them in a most trying position. Most of them loved their former privileges and enjoyments, and when the 'meat in due season' was withheld from them, and the siren song of 'peace and safety' was resounded in their ears from Sabbath to Sabbath, they were soon weaned from their party predilections, and arose in the majesty of their strength, shook off the yoke, and raised the cry, 'Come out of her, my people.' This state of things placed us in a trying position: 1. Because we were near the end of our prophetic time, in which we expected the Lord would gather all his people in one; 2. We had always preached a different doctrine, and now that the circumstances had changed, it would be regarded as dishonest in us, if we should unite in the cry of separation and breaking up of churches that had received us and our message. We therefore hesitated, and continued to act on our first position, until the church and ministry carried the matter so far, that we were obliged in the fear of God to take a position of defense for the truth and down-trodden children of God."—Joshua V. Himes, written at McConnellsville, Ohio, Aug. 29, 1844, and printed in the Advent Herald; quoted in the Review and Herald of Jan. 13, 1852.

1844: In 1844, Josiah Litch, writing upon the work that had been accomplished up to that time, in disseminating the doctrine of the second coming of Christ, said: "Within the last six years publications treating on the subject have been sent to nearly every English and American missionary station on the globe. . . . The Advent books have been greatly multiplied within the last four years. . . . The first and most important work published was Mr. Miller's Lectures. That volume may be regarded as the seed from which all the rest have germinated.

"The works of Miller, Ward, Hale, Bliss, Fitch, Storrs, Brown, Hery, Cook, Whiting, Starkweather, Hawley, Litch, Fleming, Cox, Sabine, etc., constitute the Second Advent Library, and exhibit the views which have been presented to the public by the lecturers. Other sheets and pamphlets have been published."

"No cause of a moral or religious character, probably, ever made so rapid advance as the cause of Adventism." From the Review and Herald, published during April and May, 1856, at Battle Creek, Mich., being a republication from the Advent Shield, in 1844.

Oct. 22, 1844, marked the close of the 2300 years and the beginning of the cleansing of the sanctuary, or the judgment hour. On this day occurred the great disappointment of Revelation 10.

Of his labors and the visible results up to 1844, Mr. Miller wrote:—

“I labored extensively in all the New England and Middle States, in Ohio, Michigan, Maryland, the District of Columbia, and in Canada, East and West, giving about four thousand lectures in something like five hundred different towns.”

“I should think that about two hundred ministers embraced my views, in all the different parts of the United States and Canada; and that there have been about five hundred public lecturers.” “In nearly a thousand places, Advent congregations have been raised up, numbering, as nearly as I can estimate, some fifty thousand believers. On recalling to mind the several places of my labors, I can reckon up about six thousand instances of conversion from nature’s darkness to God’s marvelous light, the result of my personal labors alone; and I should judge the number to be much greater.” “In all my labors I never had the desire or thought to establish any separate interest from that of existing denominations, or to benefit one at the expense of another.”—Wm. Miller, in “Life of Wm. Miller,” pp. 360, 361.

“The Adventists were of all churches, and they had no idea of forming another church. After ‘the time’ passed, there was great confusion, and the majority were strongly opposed to any organization, holding that it was inconsistent with the perfect liberty of the gospel.”—James White, in note to “Supplement to Experience and Views,” p. 12; republished in “Early Writings.”

THE THIRD ANGEL’S MESSAGE.

1840: “In March, 1840, William Miller visited Portland, Me., and gave his first course of lectures on the second coming of Christ. . . . I attended these meetings.”—Mrs. E. G. White, in “Life Sketches,” p. 136.

1842: “In June, 1842, Mr. Miller gave his second course of lectures in the Casco Street [Methodist] church, in Portland. I felt it a great privilege to attend these lectures.”—Ibid., p. 148.

Elder James White attended the Advent camp-meeting in October, 1842, in Exeter, Me., and immediately prepared to go out into the great harvest-field, and do what he could in sounding the warning.

1843: About May, 1843, Elder James White was ordained, by “ministers of the Christian denomination,” of which he was a member.

1844: “The Sabbath was first introduced to the attention of the Adventist people at Washington, N. H. A faithful Seventh-day Baptist sister, Mrs. Rachel D. Preston, from the State of New York, having removed to this place, brought with her the Sabbath of the Lord. Here she became interested in the doctrine of the glorious advent of the Saviour at hand. Being instructed in this subject by the Adventist people, she in turn instructed them in the commandments of God, and as early as 1844 nearly the entire church in that place, consisting of about forty persons, became observers of the Sabbath of the Lord. The oldest body of Sabbath-keepers among Seventh-day Adventists is therefore at Washington, N. H.—J. N. Andrews, in "History of the Sabbath," p. 506.

"From this place, several Adventist ministers received the Sabbath truth during the year 1844. One of these was Elder T. M. Preble, who has the honor of first bringing this great truth before the Adventists through the medium of the press. His essay was dated February 13, 1845," written at East Weare, N. H., and appeared in the Hope of Israel, of February 28, 1845, published at Portland, Me. This article was reprinted in the Review and Herald, August 23, 1870. The article was rewritten by Elder Preble in March, 1845, and published in tract form, and was printed in the Review of December 21, 1869.—Idem, p. 506.

"Within a few months, many persons began to observe the Sabbath as the result of the light thus shed on their pathway. Elder J. B. Cook, a man of decided talent as a preacher and a writer, was one of these early converts to the Sabbath. Elders Preble and Cook . . . were called in the providence of God to fill an important place in the work of Sabbath reform. But both of them, while preaching and writing in its behalf, committed the fatal error of making it of no practical importance. . . . After two or three years of this kind of Sabbath observance, each of these men apostatized from it, and thenceforward used what influence they possessed in warring against the fourth commandment. The larger part of those who embraced the Sabbath from their labors were not sufficiently impressed with its importance to become settled and grounded in its weighty evidences, and after a brief period they also turned back from its observance."—Idem, p. 507.

"Elder Preble's first article in behalf of the Sabbath was the means of calling the attention of our venerable brother, Joseph Bates, to this divine institution. He soon became convinced of its obligation, and at once began to observe it." "The subject of the heavenly sanctuary began about this time to interest many Adventists, and especially Elder Bates. He was one of the first to see that the central object of that sanctuary is the ark of God. He also called attention to the proclamation of the third angel relative to God's commandments."—Idem, p. 508.

1845: Early in 1845 occurred the first vision given to Mrs. E. G. White (whose name at that time was Ellen G. Harmon), and was first published in 1846. It was published later in "Experience and Views," and may be found on pp. 9-15 of "Early Writings."

In the year 1845, Joseph Bates, a member of the Christian Church, began the observance of the Sabbath, and during the same year wrote and published a tract on the Sabbath question, which was the first printed document issued under the third angel's message.

1846: "While on a visit to New Bedford, Mass., in 1846, I became acquainted with Elder Joseph Bates. . . . Elder Bates was keeping the Sabbath, and urged its importance. I did not feel its importance, and thought that Elder B. erred in dwelling upon the fourth commandment more than upon the other nine. But the Lord gave me a view of the heavenly sanctuary. . . . I was shown that the third angel proclaiming the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus represents the people who receive this message and raise the voice of warning to the world, to keep the commandments of God and his law as the apple of the eye, and that in response to this warning many would embrace the Sabbath of the Lord."—Mrs. E. G. White, in "Life Sketches," pp. 236, 237.

"Brother Bates wrote and circulated gratuitously a small work on the Sabbath, which confirmed us on the subject."—James White, in Review and Herald, Vol. 11, No. 8, p. 61, Dec. 3, 1857.

"In the autumn of 1846 we began to observe the Bible Sabbath, and to teach and defend it."—Mrs. E. G. White, in "Testimonies to the Church," Vol. 1, p. 75.

- 1847: The year 1847 was spent by the three leaders in the third angel's message, Elder Joseph Bates, Elder James White, and Mrs. E. G. White, in instructing and encouraging the scattered companies of Advent believers.

FIRST GENERAL MEETING OF SABBATH-KEEPERS.

- 1848: The first general meeting of Sabbath-keepers was held at the home of S. T. Belden, April 20 and 21, 1848, at Rocky Hill, eight miles from Middletown, Conn., with about thirty present.

The second similar meeting was held in Volney, N. Y., August, 1848, in a barn belonging to D. Arnold, and was attended by about thirty-five. "There were hardly two agreed." Here the work of uniting the brethren on the great truths connected with the message of the third angel commenced.

PUBLISHING WORK BEGUN.

- 1849: In July, 1849, James White began the publication of a paper called the Present Truth, at Middletown, Conn. This paper was published semimonthly, four numbers being issued in Middletown, from July to September, 1849. The fifth and sixth numbers were issued in Oswego, N. Y., in December, 1849; the seventh and eighth numbers in Oswego, in March, 1850; the ninth and tenth numbers in Oswego during April and May, 1850; the eleventh number in Paris, Me., in November, 1850. The Present Truth was then discontinued. Total pages, 88; size of printed page, 5 x 8 inches.

A general meeting was held at Paris, Me., September 14, and attended by J. N. Andrews, who, it appears, then publicly took his stand on the truth.

A conference was held at Oswego, November 3. "We then decided that it was our duty to labor in the State of New York. My husband felt a burden upon him to write and publish. We rented a house in Oswego, borrowed furniture from our brethren, and commenced housekeeping. There my husband wrote, published, and preached."—Mrs. E. G. White, in "Life Sketches," p. 265.

- 1850: In November, 1850, the Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was published in Paris, Me., with Joseph Bates, S. W. Rhodes, J. N. Andrews, and James White as publishing committee. "Terms—Gratis, except the reader desires to aid in its publication."

The term "second advent" used to designate special work and message.

- 1851: "During the eight months [Nov., 1850, to June, 1851] of the publishing of the Review, eight new names were added to the list of ministers who gave themselves more or less to preaching the truth of the third angel's message. Among these were S. W.

Rhodes, Hiram Edson, F. Wheeler, E. P. Butler, and J. N. Andrews."—"Rise and Progress," p. 159.

From November, 1850, to June 9, 1851, thirteen numbers of the paper were issued in Paris, Me., with the title, Second Advent Review and Sabbath Herald. The last issue states: "It seems duty to suspend the publication of the paper for a few weeks, to attend the Conferences at Camden and Milton, N. Y., and visit other places as the way may open."

August 5, 1851, from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., appeared the first number of the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, as Vol. 2, No. 1, with James White as editor, and Joseph Bates, Hiram Edson, and J. N. Andrews as publishing committee.

Annie R. Smith took her stand for the truth, and in August connected with the Review Office as a worker, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., chiefly as a proofreader. "For three years she labored faithfully and effectively, for board and clothing only. At the end of this period, consumption had marked her for its victim."

From the above date to March 23, 1852, fourteen numbers were issued, semimonthly. The last number contains the report of the first Conference called to consider the publishing work, held at Ballston, N. Y., March 12-15, 1852, at which it was voted that the Review and Herald should be published at Rochester, N. Y. The first issue from that place bears date of May 6, 1852, being No. 1 of Volume 3.

During the publication of Vol. 2 of the Review [Aug. 5, 1851, to March 23, 1852] the following-named persons accepted the truth: R. F. Cottrell, C. W. Sperry, W. S. Ingraham, Joseph Baker, and other public speakers, eight in all.—"Rise and Progress," p. 164.

August, 1851, "Experience and Views" first published, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

REMOVAL TO ROCHESTER, N. Y.

1852: May 6, 1852, the first number of Vol. 3 of the Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was printed in Rochester, N. Y.; on a Washington hand-press, with type owned by Seventh-day Adventists, the total cost of press and material being $652.93, and the contributions for that purpose being $655.84.

From May 6, 1852 to May 12, 1853, the following-named persons accepted the Sabbath truth, and began public labor in its behalf: J. H. Waggoner, A. S. Hutchins, M. E. Cornell, J. M. Stephenson, D. P. Hall, J. B. Frisbie, Albert Stone, M. G. Kellogg, T. M. Steward, U. Smith, and J. N. Loughborough.

No. 1, Vol. 1, of the Youth's Instructor appeared in August, 1852.

The first general meeting held at Rochester, N. Y., after the removal of the printing plant there was called by G. W. Holt, "in behalf of the brethren," and met at 124 Mount Hope Ave., September 25 and 26, 1852. This meeting was attended by the following ministers: S. W. Rhodes, J. N. Andrews, Ira Wyman, W. S. Ingraham, G. W. Holt. At that meeting J. N. Loughborough took his stand upon the truth, and kept the following Sabbath, October 7. His first contribution to the Review and Herald bears date of October 25, and appears in the issue of that paper the 28th.

"For want of room it has been necessary to move our office from one of the rooms of our 'own hired house,' to South St. Paul Street, Stone's Block, No. 21, third floor."—Review and Herald, Oct. 14, 1852.

An important series of articles on the Sabbath question was written by J. N. Andrews, and issued in the Review and Herald from May to August, 1852.

Elder U. Smith observed the first Sabbath in December, 1852. Connected with the Review Office in Rochester, N. Y., May 3, 1853.

- 1853: "With the opening of Vol. 4, [May 26, 1853] appeared a slight semblance of a price for the publications, in these words: 'To those wishing to pay, $1 for a volume of twenty-six numbers.' With the issuing of the sixth number of this volume, the Review began to be published as a weekly, and from that date, August 4, its influence greatly increased. It was in the columns of this volume that a treatise on the evidences of our faith was published, which was afterward put into pamphlet form, and sold at ten cents per copy, being the first book upon which a price was fixed. It was that most excellent pamphlet, 'The Signs of the Times,' written by Elder James White, which, under God, has been the means of converting scores, if not hundreds, to the truth. The first article appeared August 11, 1853, in No. 7 of the Review."—J. N. Loughborough, in "Rise and Progress," p.193.

A conference of believers was convened at 109 Monroe St., Rochester, N. Y., July 16-19, attended by James White, Joseph Bates, W. S. Ingraham, J. N. Andrews, J. B. Frisbie, G. W. Holt, H. W. Lawrence. "The principal object of this meeting was to consider the interest of the church of Christ, our present duty as a people, and the best plans to advance the cause of truth." "The subject of the best plan to circulate our publications was introduced, and after remarks were made on the subject, a committee was chosen to prepare a report." This report covered two points, namely, the sale of tracts at first cost, instead of being distributed gratuitously, as had been the case; and, second, that the Review and Herald should be published weekly.—Review and Herald, August 4, 1853.

- 1854: The first tent-meeting held under the proclamation of the third angel's message was conducted by Elders J. N. Loughborough and M. E. Cornell. The tent was pitched on the southeast corner of Tompkins and Van Buren Streets, Battle Creek, Mich., and meetings begun June 10, and closed June 12, 1854.

A conference was held at 109 Monroe St., Rochester, N. Y., June 23-26. Reports rendered indicated the rapid spread of the message, especially in the West. Among the decisions arrived at was the change in price of the Review and Herald from $1.50 to $1.00 per year. Publishing Committee of the Review and Herald changed to J. N. Andrews, R. F. Cottrell, and Uriah Smith, with Jas. White as editor. "Great harmony and peace pervaded the entire meeting."—Review and Herald, July 4, 1854.

REMOVAL OF REVIEW AND HERALD OFFICE TO BATTLE CREEK, MICH.

- 1855: "September 23, 1855, a meeting of those interested in establishing the Advent Review office in Michigan, was held at Battle Creek, when Elder J. B. Frisbie was chosen chairman, and A. A. Dodge secretary, and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

"1. That the Advent Review office still remain the property of the church.

"2. That the Advent Review office be moved to Battle Creek, Mich.

"3. That a Financial Committee of three be chosen, whose duty it shall be to move the office, and publish the Advent Review.

"4. That D. R. Palmer of Jackson, Henry Lyon and Cyrenius Smith of Battle Creek, be the Financial Committee.

"5. That the Committee call on the church at large to send in their free-will offerings to defray the expenses of moving the Advent Review office, and to replenish the office with those things necessary in editing and publishing the Advent Review.

"6. That the Committee proposes through the Advent Review a plan on which the editorial department of the Advent Review shall be conducted, requesting those interested, in the several States, to speak out on the subject by letter to the Committee—either to adopt, amend, or reject the plan and suggest another—and that, if necessary, the Committee call a meeting of delegates from different parts of the field to choose an editor, or editors, to conduct the Advent Review.

"7. That the doings of this meeting be published in the Advent Review."—From the Review and Herald, Oct. 2, 1855.

In the Review and Herald of October 16 appeared an article signed by Henry Lyon, Cyrenius Smith, and D. R. Palmer, containing the following statements:—

"At a meeting held in Battle Creek, Sept. 23, 1855, we were chosen a Financial Committee, to move the office to this State, and to publish the Advent Review. . . . We shall, Providence permitting, move the office, and commence the publication of the Review weekly this fall. Four brethren have purchased a building lot, and are erecting a building suitable for the printing office, editor's room, etc. The expenses of moving the office, including boxing up press, type, etc., freight from Rochester to Battle Creek, and a loss on some things not movable, and others not worth moving (which will have to be got new at Battle Creek), will be about $200. The friends of the cause are now invited to send in their free-will offerings to this amount, for the above-named object, to Henry Lyon, Battle Creek, Mich."

BUSINESS PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE AT BATTLE CREEK, MICH.

"Brethren assembled in Conference at Battle Creek, Nov. 16, 1855, according to appointment in Review of October 16. Elder Joseph Bates was chosen chairman. Letters from different parts of the field relative to the business of the meeting were read. All were in harmony with the proposals heretofore made in the Review. In the business transactions of this Conference, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

"1. That a committee be appointed to investigate the financial condition of the Review office.

"2. That Henry Lyon, David Hewett, and Wm. M. Smith, of Battle Creek, be that committee.

"3. That this Conference sanction the proceedings of the previous Conference of Sep. 23, 1855, and that the committee then chosen hold in trust the press for the benefit of the church.

"4. That Uriah Smith be resident editor of the Advent Review.

"5. That J. N. Andrews, of Iowa, James White, and J. H. Waggoner, of Michigan, R. F. Cottrell, of New York, and Stephen Pierce, of Vermont, be corresponding editors.

"6. That after the investigation of the affairs of the Review office, the financial committee pay Brother White for materials which he has placed in the office above what was first donated, and call on the church for the amount, that he may be able to meet the debts he has incurred in placing this material in the office.

"7. That Brother White be subject to the advice of the financial or publishing committee, in the management of the publication and sale of books.

"8. That a vote of thanks be tendered to Brother White for his valuable services as an editor, in spreading the light of present truth.

"9. That Joseph Bates, J. H. Waggoner, and M. E. Cornell be appointed to address the saints in behalf of the Conference, on the gifts of the church.

"10. That the following unanimous expression of the brethren assembled, be published with the proceedings of the Conference, in the Advent Review:—

"Whereas, Inquiries have been made as to what course we designed to pursue in the future, in reference to the misstatements of the enemies of present truth, therefore, for the information and satisfaction of the brethren abroad,—

"Resolved, That we henceforth devote ourselves exclusively to the advocacy and defense of the present truth, committing ourselves in all things to Him who judgeth righteously, after the example of our Pattern, in affliction and in patience."

"JOSEPH BATES, Chairman.

URIAH SMITH, Secretary."

— Review and Herald, Dec. 4, 1855.

The first number of the Review and Herald issued in Battle Creek, Mich., was dated, Dec. 4, 1855. This number contains the salutation of Uriah Smith as editor, which position he held at the time of his death, March 6, 1903.

Death of Annie R. Smith, July 26, 1855.

1856: The business meeting of a special Conference was held May 26, 1856, convened upon the call of J. B. Frisbie and James White, at Battle Creek, Mich., and in behalf of the Battle Creek church. R. Lewis be a Tent Committee to whom all tent operations in this State [Michigan] should be referred; that J. P. Kellogg be tent treasurer for this State.

"A history of the publishing of the present truth from the commencement was related by Brother White; and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

That the church receive the books from Brother White; that, on account of ill health, and upon his request, Henry Lyon be released as one of the Publishing Committee of the Advent

Review, and that Brother J. P. Kellogg, of Battle Creek, be chosen in his place; that the Publishing Committee of the Review be also the committee which shall have charge of the Church Book Fund.

Arrangements made for the payment of the debts incurred in the publication of Vol. 7 of the Review and the removal of the office from Rochester, N. Y., to Battle Creek, Mich.; an increased circulation of the Review recommended; "that James White, J. H. Waggoner, and U. Smith be a committee of three, to prepare a tract on the subject of the Sabbath, to be printed in German;" "that Brother J. H. Waggoner address the Church at large in behalf of the Conference."—Review and Herald, May 29, 1856.

The name of S. N. Haskell first appears in the Review of Jan. 31, 1856.

1857: A conference was called by J. P. Kellogg, James White, and C. Smith, to convene in Battle Creek church April 10, 1857. On the 12th the business proceedings were held. Joseph Bates was chosen Chairman, and U. Smith, Secretary.

"The points to come before the Conference for consideration were not numerous." "Resolved that a power press be obtained for the Review office," the purchasing of which was referred to the Publishing Committee.

"Tent operations came next before the Conference for consideration." The tent committee for Michigan continued.

The committee appointed to prepare a tract on the Sabbath question for Germans were urged to publish the same.

"The subject of a meeting house in Battle Creek, sufficiently large to accommodate such conferences as it will probably be necessary to convene from time to time at this place, was next considered. The necessity for this was very sensibly felt by most of those present. It was therefore —

"Resolved, That a house that will conveniently seat about three or four hundred people, is much needed in this place, and should be erected as soon as possible."—Review and Herald, April 16, 1857.

In the Review and Herald of July 23, 1857, James White wrote that about "ten years ago we published the first number of the little sheet called Present Truth. Then Sabbath-keepers who were looking for the second coming of Christ numbered about one hundred. We sent the first number of the Present Truth to all that we could hope would read it, and took them to the postoffice in a carpet bag. The few believers were generally poor, and but three among them who publicly taught the truth, and two of them could not give themselves wholly to the work for want of means."

"Probably it will require from $2500 to $3000 to purchase the power press, and put it in motion. Of this sum $1700 have been pledged, in sums of $100 each, by seventeen persons, eleven of them in this State."—Review and Herald, May 7, 1857.

The business session of an important Conference was held Nov. 9, 1857, at Battle Creek, Mich., Joseph Bates, Chairman; Uriah Smith, Secretary.

"The attention of the Conference was first called to the subject of the meeting house [in Battle Creek]. The report of the building committee was read, by which it appears that the whole cost of the house is $881.39." Approval was expressed regarding the purchase of the press and engine for producing publications "like the leaves of autumn." "The only question that remains is, Will the church act their part in their circulation?"

"Third subject brought before the meeting was the publication of the paper and the book business. These have heretofore been kept separate and distinct. . . . It was—

"Resolved, That the publication of the Review and Herald, and of the books be united as one concern."

Committee on financial interests in Michigan: H. S. Lay, A. F. Fowler, A. A. Dodge, D. R. Palmer, C. G. Cramer, J. F. Carman, L. Kellogg.

"Resolved, That a Committee of Revision be appointed, through whose hands all matter designed for publication in book form shall pass, and under whose sanction it shall be issued; by which means an individual responsibility in the publication of books will be avoided, and confidence be placed in whatever shall be thus published, as the voice of the body.

"Resolved, That Brethren J. H. Waggoner, James White, and J. B. Frisbie be this committee."—Review and Herald, Nov. 12, 1857.

1858: A conference was called by James White, J. N. Loughborough, and J. B. Frisbie, "Conference Committee," to convene in Battle Creek, Mich., May 21, 1858. "There were present of those who publicly advocated the third angel's message, Brethren Bates, White, Waggoner, Cottrell, Byington, Loughborough, Rhodes, Cornell, Frisbie, Wheeler, Lawrence, Hutchins, Sperry, and Butler."

A committee appointed to present business before the conference called attention to the meeting house for the Battle Creek church, and the purchasing of the power press for the Review office, and action was taken to complete the deficit on these items of business. The tent work was considered, and the Michigan tent committee continued. "The wants of the West and the calls for help from that section were not overlooked. It was recommended that Brother J. H. Waggoner should labor in the West, and if the way should open, in connection with Brother M. Hull in Iowa."

J. White, U. Smith, and C. Smith were appointed as a committee on publication of works in foreign languages.—Review and Herald, May 27, 1858.

ORGANIZATION OF CHURCHES.

A Conference was held in Battle Creek, Mich., October 5 and 6, seven ministers being present.

"The first business presented was the organization of churches. Brother [J. N.] Loughborough said: 'I consider it proper and necessary to consider here the organization of churches, as the subject has been agitated among us, especially for the last six months; and in order to bring the matter before the meeting, I move that we consider the proper manner of organizing churches.' Seconded by Brother [Jas.] White. Carried. Brother White then presented the following resolution:—

"Resolved, That this Conference recommend the following church covenant: We, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together, as a church, taking the name, Seventh-day Adventists, covenanting to keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus Christ."

"Resolved, That we recommend to the churches in the State of Michigan to unite in one Conference, with the name of The Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Adopted."

1862: During the early part of 1862 the question of the permanent organization of a General Conference was agitated, and articles in favor of such organization published in the Review and Herald.

The Michigan Conference and the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association having been organized during 1861, and sessions of these organizations called to meet at Monterey, Michigan, October 4 and 5, 1862, there was no session of the General Conference as such during this year. However, in the proceedings of the Michigan Conference just referred to, matters of a general nature were brought in, inasmuch as this was the first State Conference that had been organized.

"Moved by Brother Loughborough that the next State Conference be held at Battle Creek, Mich., October 2-5, 1863. Carried.

"Resolved, That we invite the several State Conferences to meet with us, by delegate, in general conference, at our next annual Conference. Adopted."—Review and Herald, October 14, 1862.

"It is the opinion of several brethren, whose judgment we have reason to respect, that the best time for a General Conference would be the last of May next, or the first of June, instead of next October."—James White, in Review and Herald, March 10, 1863.

For three or four years previous to this time there had been considerable discussion going on regarding the question of organization of a General Conference and of State Conferences. Accordingly, the next May (1863), the General Conference was formally organized, although for a number of years it had been doing work in a practical way.

The basis of representation by delegates from State Conferences was made as follows:—

"Each State Conference shall be entitled to one delegate in the General Conference, and one additional delegate for every twenty delegates in the State Conference."

At the same Conference a constitution was adopted for State Conferences, the delegate representation provided being as follows:—

"Each church to the number of twenty members or under shall be entitled to one delegate, and one delegate for every additional fifteen members."

According to this arrangement the basis of representation at the General Conference was one delegate for the State Conference, and one additional delegate for every 350 members of the State Conference.

The committee on nominations reported as follows: Pres., James White; Sec., Uriah Smith; Treas., E. S. Walker; Ex. Com., James White, John Byington, J. N. Loughborough.

Although unanimously elected president, James White declined to serve, and John Byington was elected in his place.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

Seventh-day Adventists have no creed but the Bible; but they hold to certain well-defined points of faith, for which they feel prepared to give a reason "to every man that asketh" them. The following propositions may be taken as a summary of the principal features of their religious faith, upon which there is, so far as is known, entire unanimity throughout the body. They believe:—

1. That there is one God, a personal, spiritual being, the Creator of all things, omnipotent, omniscient, and eternal; infinite in wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness, truth, and mercy; unchangeable, and everywhere present by his representative, the Holy Spirit. Ps. 139: 7.

2. That there is one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Eternal Father, the one by whom he created all things, and by whom they do consist; that he took on him the nature of the seed of Abraham for the redemption of our fallen race; that he dwelt among men, full of grace and truth, lived our example, died our sacrifice, was raised for our justification, ascended on high to be our only mediator in the sanctuary in heaven, where, through the merits of his shed blood, he secures the pardon and forgiveness of the sins of all those who persistently come to him; and as the closing portion of his work as priest, before he takes his throne as king, he will make the great atonement for the sins of all such, and their sins will then be blotted out (Acts 3: 19) and borne away from the sanctuary, as shown in the service of the Levitical priesthood, which foreshadowed and prefigured the ministry of our Lord in heaven. See Leviticus 16; Heb. 8: 4, 5; 9: 6, 7.

3. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain a full revelation of his will to man, and are the only infallible rule of faith and practise.

4. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church, to follow faith and repentance,—an ordinance by which we commemorate the resurrection of Christ, as by this act we show our faith in his burial and resurrection, and through that, in the resurrection of all the saints at the last day; and that no other mode more fitly represents these facts than that which the Scriptures prescribe, namely, immersion. Rom. 6: 3-5; Col. 2: 12.

5. That the new birth comprises the entire change necessary to fit us for the kingdom of God, and consists of two parts: First, a moral change wrought by conversion and a Christian life (John 5: 3); second, a physical change at the second coming of Christ, whereby, if dead, we are raised incorruptible, and if living, are changed to immortality in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. Luke 20: 36; 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52.

6. That prophecy is a part of God's revelation to man; that it is included in that Scripture which is profitable for instruction (2 Tim. 3: 16); that it is designed for us and our children (Deut. 29: 29); that so far from being enshrouded in impenetrable mystery, it is that which especially constitutes the word of God a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Ps. 119: 105; 2 Peter 1: 19); that a blessing is pronounced upon those who study it (Rev. 1: 1-3); and that, consequently, it is to be understood by the people of God sufficiently to show them their position in the world's history and the special duties required at their hands.

7. That the world's history from specified dates in the past, the rise and fall of empires, and the chronological succession of events down to the setting up of God's everlasting kingdom, are outlined in numerous great chains of prophecy; and that these prophecies are now all fulfilled except the closing scenes.

8. That the doctrine of the world's conversion and a temporal millennium is a fable of these last days, calculated to lull men into a state of carnal security, and cause them to be overtaken by the great day of the Lord as by a thief in the night (1 Thess. 5: 3); that the second coming of Christ is to precede, not follow, the millennium; for until the Lord appears, the papal power, with all its abominations, is to continue (2 Thess. 2: 8), the wheat and tares grow together (Matt. 13: 29, 30, 39), and evil men and seducers wax worse and worse, as the word of God declares. 2 Tim. 3: 1, 13.

9. That the mistake of Adventists in 1844 pertained to the nature of the event then to transpire, not to the time; that no prophetic period is given to reach to the second advent, but that the longest one, the two thousand and three hundred days of Dan. 8: 14, terminated in 1844, and brought us to an event, called the cleansing of the sanctuary. See Note 1.

10. That the sanctuary of the new covenant is the tabernacle of God in heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which our Lord, as great high priest, is minister; that this sanctuary is the antitype of the Mosaic tabernacle, and that the priestly work of our Lord, connected therewith, is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation (Heb. 8: 1-5, etc.); that this, and not the earth, is the sanctuary to be cleansed at the end of the two thousand and three hundred days, what is termed its cleansing being in this case, as in the type, simply the entrance of the high priest into the most holy place, to finish the round of service connected therewith by making the atonement and removing from the sanctuary the sins which had been transferred to it by means of the ministration in the first apartment (Lev. 16; Heb. 9: 22, 23); and that this work in the antitype, beginning in 1844, consists in actually blotting out the sins of believers (Acts 3: 19), and occupies a brief but indefinite space of time, at the conclusion of which the work of mercy for the world will be finished, and the second advent of Christ will take place.

11. That God's moral requirements are the same upon all men in all dispensations; that these are summarily contained in the commandments spoken by Jehovah from Sinai, engraven on the tables of stone, and deposited in the ark, which was in consequence called the "ark of the covenant," or testament (Num. 10: 33; Heb. 9: 4, etc.); that this law is immutable and perpetual, being a transcript of the tables deposited in the ark in the true sanctuary on high, which is also, for the same reason, called the ark of God's testament; for under the sounding of the seventh trumpet we are told that "the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament." Rev. 11: 19.

12. That the fourth commandment of this law requires that we devote the seventh day of each week, commonly called Saturday, to abstinence from our own labor, and to the performance of sacred and religious duties; that this is the only weekly Sabbath known to the Bible, being the day that was set apart before Paradise was lost (Gen. 2: 2, 3), and which will be observed in Paradise restored (Isa. 66: 22, 23); that the facts upon which the Sabbath institution is based confine it to the seventh day, as they are not true of any other day, and that the terms Jewish Sabbath, as applied to the seventh day, and Christian Sabbath, as applied to the first day of the week, are names of human invention, unscriptural in fact, and false in meaning.

13. That as the man of sin, the papacy, has thought to change times and laws (the law of God, Dan. 7: 25), and has misled almost all Christendom in regard to the fourth commandment, we find a prophecy of a reform in this respect to be wrought among believers just before the coming of Christ. Isa. 56: 1, 2; 1 Peter 1: 5; Rev. 14: 12, etc.

14. That the followers of Christ should be a peculiar people, not following the maxims, nor conforming to the ways, of the world; not loving its pleasures nor countenancing its follies; inasmuch as the apostle says that "whosoever therefore will be" in this sense, "a friend of the world, is the enemy of God" (James 4: 4); and Christ says that we can not have two masters, or, at the same time, serve God and mammon. Matt. 6: 24.

15. That the Scriptures insist upon plainness and modesty of attire as a prominent mark of discipleship in those who profess to be the followers of Him who was "meek and lowly in heart;" that the wearing of gold, pearls, and costly array, or anything designed merely to adorn the person and foster the pride of the natural heart, is to be discarded, according to such scriptures as 1 Tim. 2: 9, 10; 1 Peter 3: 3, 4.

16. That means for the support of evangelical work among men should be contributed from love to God and love of souls, not raised by church lotteries, or occasions designed to contribute to the fun-loving, appetite-indulging propensities of the sinner, such as fairs, festivals, crazy socials, etc., which are a disgrace to the professed church of Christ; that the proportion of one's income required in former dispensations can be no less under the gospel; that it is the same as Abraham (whose children we are, if we are Christ's, Gal. 3: 29) paid to Melchisedec (type of Christ) when he gave him a tenth of all (Heb. 7: 1-4); the tithe is the Lord's (Lev. 27: 30); and this tenth of one's income is also to be supplemented by offerings from those who are able, for the support of the gospel. 2 Cor. 9: 6; Mal. 3: 8, 10.

17. That as the natural or carnal heart is at enmity with God and his law, this enmity can be subdued only by a radical transformation of the affections; the exchange of unholy for holy principles; that this transformation follows repentance and faith, is the special work of the Holy Spirit, and constitutes regeneration, or conversion.

18. That as all have violated the law of God, and can not of themselves render obedience to his just requirements, we are dependent on Christ, first, for justification from our past offenses, and, secondly, for grace whereby to render acceptable obedience to his holy law in time to come.

19. That the Spirit of God was promised to manifest itself in the church through certain gifts, enumerated especially in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4; that these gifts are not designed to supersede, or take the place of, the Bible, which is sufficient to make us wise unto salvation, any more than the Bible can take the place of the Holy Spirit; that, in specifying the various channels of its operation, that Spirit has simply made provision for its own existence and presence with the people of God to the end of time to lead to an understanding of that word which it had inspired, to convince of sin, and to work a transformation in the heart and life; and that those who deny to the Spirit its place and operation, do plainly deny that part of the Bible which assigns to it this work and position.

20. That God, in accordance with his uniform dealings with the race, sends forth a proclamation of the approach of the second advent of Christ; and that this work is symbolized by the three messages of Revelation 14, the last one bringing to view the work of reform on the law of God, that his people may acquire a complete readiness for that event.

21. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary (see proposition 10), synchronizing with the time of the proclamation of the third message (Rev. 14: 9, 10), is a time of investigative judgment, first, with reference to the dead, and secondly, at the close of probation, with reference to the living, to determine who of the myriads now sleeping in the dust of the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of translation,—points which must be determined before the Lord appears.

22. That the grave, whither we all tend, expressed by the Hebrew word "sheol" and the Greek word "hades," is a place, or condition, in which there is no work, device, wisdom, nor knowledge. Eccl. 9: 10.

23. That the state to which we are reduced by death is one of silence, inactivity, and entire unconsciousness. Ps. 146: 4; Eccl. 9: 5, 6; Dan. 12: 2.

24. That out of this prison-house of the grave, mankind are to be brought by a bodily resurrection, the righteous having part in the first resurrection, which takes place at the second coming of Christ; the wicked in the second resurrection which takes place in a thousand years thereafter. Rev. 20: 4-6.

25. That at the last trump, the living righteous are to be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, and that the risen righteous are to be caught up to meet the Lord in the air, so forever to be with the Lord. 1 Thess. 4: 16, 17; 1 Cor. 15: 51, 52.

26. That these immortalized ones are then taken to heaven, to the New Jerusalem, the Father's house, in which there are many mansions (John 14: 1-3), where they reign with Christ a thousand years, judging the world and fallen angels, that is, apportioning the punishment to be executed upon them at the close of the one thousand years (Rev. 20: 4; 1 Cor. 6: 2, 3); that during this time the earth lies in a desolate, chaotic condition (Jer. 4: 23-27), described, as in the beginning, by the Greek term "abussos" (bottomless pit) (Septuagint of Gen. 1: 2); and that here Satan is confined during the thousand years (Rev. 20: 1, 2), and here finally destroyed (Rev. 20: 10; Mal. 4: 1); the theater of the ruin he has wrought in the universe being appropriately made for a time, his gloomy prison-house, and then the place of his final execution.

27. That at the end of the thousand years the Lord descends with his people and the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21: 2), the wicked dead are raised, and come up on the surface of the yet unrenewed earth, and gather about the city, the camp of the saints (Rev. 20: 9), and fire comes down from God out of heaven and devours them. They are then consumed, root and branch (Mal. 4: 1), becoming as though they had not been (Obad. 15, 16). In this everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord (2 Thess. 1: 9), the wicked meet the "everlasting punishment" threatened against them (Matt. 25: 46), which is everlasting death. Rom. 6: 23; Rev. 20: 14, 15. This is the perdition of ungodly men, the fire which consumes them being the fire for which "the heavens and the earth, which are now, . . . are kept in store," which shall melt even the elements with its intensity, and purge the earth from the deepest stains of the curse of sin. 2 Peter 3: 7-12.

28. That new heavens and a new earth shall spring by the power of God from the ashes of the old, and this renewed earth with the New Jerusalem for its metropolis and capital shall be the eternal inheritance of the saints, the place where the righteous shall evermore dwell. 2 Peter 3: 13; Ps. 37: 11, 29; Matt. 5: 5.

NOTE 1, REGARDING PROPOSITION 9.—The Adventists of 1844 expected that the end of the world would come in that year, because they held that certain prophecies would then transpire, which they believed reached to the coming of the Lord. Chief among these was the prophecy of Dan. 8:13, 14, which says that at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days (years) the sanctuary should be cleansed. They believed that the earth was the sanctuary then to be cleansed, and that its cleansing was to be accomplished with fire, which would accompany the manifestation of the Lord from heaven. From these premises, the conclusion seemed inevitable that when the 2300 years ended, in 1844, the Lord would come.

But the day passed by, and no Saviour appeared. Suspended between hope and fear, and waiting until every plausible allowance for possible inaccuracies of reckoning and variations of time, was exhausted, it became at length apparent that a great mistake had been made, and that the mistake must be on one or both of the following points: either, first, the period of the 2300 days did not end at that time, and they had made a mistake in supposing that they would terminate in that year; or, secondly, the cleansing of the sanctuary was not to be the burning of the earth at the second coming of Christ, and hence they had made a mistake in expecting such an event at that time. While there was a possibility that they had made a mistake on both these points, it was certain that they had made a mistake on one of them; and either one would be sufficient to account for the fact that the Lord did not then appear.

A movement which had enlisted the whole interest of thousands upon thousands, and thrilled their hearts with enthusiastic hope, was not to be abandoned, especially by its more conservative and sincere adherents, without earnest thought and reflection. The whole field of evidence was, therefore carefully resurveyed. It soon became apparent that two methods were being adopted to account for the fact that the Lord did not come when he was expected, and to explain the consequent disappointment.

One class, at a rash bound, reached the conclusion that they had made a mistake in the time, and that the prophetic periods had not expired. This was, of course, to abandon the whole previous movement, with all its accompanying manifestations of divine power; for if the time was wrong, everything was wrong.

Another class, impressed with the fact that God had given too much evidence of his connection with the movement to allow them to abandon it, carefully reviewed the evidence on every point. The result with them was a clearer conviction of the strength and harmony of the argument on chronology. They saw no ground to change their views upon the reckoning of the time, but felt more convinced than ever that the 2300 days were correctly applied, and that they terminated at the time appointed in 1844. Thus they became satisfied that the error lay in their previous views of the subject of the sanctuary and its cleansing, and that they had made a mistake in supposing that the earth would be burned at the end of the 2300 days, because the prophecy said that then the "sanctuary" should "be cleansed."

This brings us to note the difference between Seventh-day Adventists and those called First-day Adventists, as respects chronology. The latter, believing that the prophetic periods were given to make known the time of Christ's coming, and that they have not yet ended, are held to one of two conclusions: either that all that is said in the Bible about these periods is so much of revelation unrevealed, or else that the time of Christ's coming is to be known. The first conclusion, as consistent believers in the Bible, they can not adopt, and hence their continual efforts to readjust the prophetic periods, and fix upon some new time for Christ to come. From this has arisen, in these later years, all the fantastic time-setting which has very naturally disgusted the world, and worse than this, has brought a stigma of reproach upon all prophetic study. On the other hand, Seventh-day Adventists set no time. While they believe that the prophetic periods are to be understood, they believe also that these periods have been correctly interpreted, and have all terminated; so that now there is no data from which to reason respecting a definite time for their Lord to come.
